Bad Boy

Bad Boy

A lot of tough love went into this utilitarian beast, but no frills doesn't mean a compromise on design. The Bad Boy is in fact very good at a lot of things.

Desk? Meeting table? Something to stand on to fix that loose light bulb?
We know your office furniture has to take all kinds of cruel and unusual punishment but that doesn't mean it can't look good while it's doing it.

With its hot rolled steel frame and exposed welds our Bad Boy comes bulletproof as standard. Its inset top just cries out for a cool finish, which you can either choose from our standard range or feel free to create your own.
