Kitt

The Kitt Cafe Chair, conceived by designer Mark Gabbertas for Lyndon, embodies the essence of elegant simplicity, refined detailing, comfort, and materiality. Named in honour of Eartha Kitt, this chair pays homage to the multifaceted legacy of the iconic performer and activist.

Renowned for her captivating performances, was not only a luminary in the entertainment world but also a fervent advocate for social causes. During the 1950s and 1960s, she actively participated in various social causes, lending her voice to issues around equity, civil rights and gender.

By naming this chair after Eartha Kitt, we celebrate the performer's advocacy and dynamic spirit. As a vocal supporter of LGBT rights, a proponent of same-sex marriage, and a member of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Kitt left an indelible mark on history. The Kitt Cafe Chair not only honours Eartha Kitt's legacy but also invites users to experience a blend of design and social consciousness that echoes the enduring impact of a remarkable woman.

With its considered lines and proportions, Kitt brings a gentle aesthetic to café, restaurant, bistro and bar spaces. Painstakingly and precisely honed, this chair is a manifestation of soft engineering at its finest.

Kitt's ergonomics are excellent. Every angle, curve, overhang, lip, shape, size and relative position has been crafted and adjusted to guarantee the finest sitting experience in the café chair category.

What we sit on affects how we feel and how we perform. Calm and serene, Kit looks welcoming and feels natural. Made of timber, its warm colours and organic wood textures act as a natural antidote to the mechanised, hard-edged world around us.
